The TIME’S UP Foundation recently launched Time’s Up, Measure Up, a five-year initiative to study and report on the impact of gender and racial inequities that have been historically excluded, and better understand the barriers to safe, fair, and dignified work for all.

We’re currently seeking research proposals that explore the impact of COVID-19 on workplace conditions for women workers, especially for workers of color and low-paid women. The deadline to apply is Thursday, February 18, 2021, at 11:59pm EST.

Research Funding Opportunity: Time's Up, Measure Up

To end economic oppression and reach liberation, we need massive systems change and robust intervention—and investment—from the government. This means we need, among many transformations, a New Deal for housing justice. And as a nation, we have the power and resources to ensure that everyone has a place to call home.

We'll Accept Nothing Less Than Liberation

In January 2020, we joined the Progressives of Color Movement of the Economic Security from the Ground Up.

In 2021 and always, we will not stop fighting for the structural change necessary to deliver liberation and justice for people of color.

As we grieve and navigate these traumatic events, we hold true to our work to deconstruct the systems, institutions, systems, and policies—and people.

The Forge

We're excited to share that some of our movement partners have joined the TIME'S UP Foundation! We're grateful to have these folks leading the way on Inauguration Day and we hold the federal government trifecta, we know that we need our government and allies to explicitly follow and elevate the efforts of these leaders. In 2021 and always, we will not stop fighting for the structural change necessary to deliver liberation and justice for people of color.

Although President Joe Biden and Vice President Kamala Harris were sworn in on Inauguration Day, the Capitol riots are a blatant display of how the only acceptable response to challenges of systemic racism is the white supremacist roots. Hours after Black organizers won Georgia and the Senate, an armed mob of white vigilantes attacked the US Capitol. Incited by white supremacists, including a Georgia congressman, and tagged in social media, a terrorist attack on the US Capitol is a stark reminder of why we must organize to not only stop the violence, but to be the leadership we need in our communities.

We also recognize the importance of rest. Please take care of yourself and each other. Here is a breathing exercise we encourage you to try out:

Inhale slowly through your nose, fill your lungs and imagine your body expanding from your diaphragm. Hold your breath for 5 seconds and exhale slowly through your mouth, imagining your body shrinking from your diaphragm.
